Poster Competition

Postdoctoral fellows, graduate students, and undergraduate students who are first author on abstracts are eligible for a poster competition. Please place an * behind your name and indicate whether you are a postdoctoral fellow, a graduate student or an undergraduate student at the end of your abstract. Posters will be judged based on scientific merit and relevance to respiratory infectious diseases by an evaluation committee. Awards with cash prizes will be provided for the best poster in four categories: undergraduate students, graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, and overall. Winners will be announced at the end of the poster session.

- Best Undergraduate Student Poster, $250
- Best Graduate Student Poster, $250
- Best Postdoctoral Fellow Poster, $250
- Best Overall Poster, $500
